

2017 St Andrew's Holiday at Home

Monday 31st July to Friday 16th August 2017

St Andrew's 'Holiday at Home' is a series of fun events in the first three weeks of August for those who would like a holiday without having to venture too far from home.

The activities are open to all members of the church family and their friends (although particularly focused on the retired). Unless specified all events are held in St Andrew's Lower Hall.

To sign up for any of the events please print your name on the sheets at the back of church or contact John Montgomery in the church office
john.montgomery@standrewsoxford.org or Rev. Paul White on 01865 314 862 or paul.white@standrewsoxford.org

Monday 31st July - 'Music and Tea'

We welcome back Robert and Linda Stoodley who will perform a selection of music. We finish with tea and cake. (Time 3 – 5 pm)

Wednesday 02nd August - 'Morning Café'

An informal café for all ages at St Andrew's. Pop in anytime! (Time 10 - 12 noon)

Friday 04th August - 'How big is your creative footprint?'

Acclaimed children's author, Julia Golding, will encourage us to think about our creativity as those made in the image of a creator God. Q&A and cake follows! (Time 3 – 5 pm)

Monday 07th August - 'The surgeon as God?!'

Dr Chris Milford will be speaking about the fascinating history of surgery. (Time 3 – 5pm)

Wednesday 09th August- 'Morning Café'

An informal café for all ages at St Andrew's. Pop in anytime! (Time 10 - 12 noon)

Friday 11th August - 'Art Workshop'

Helen Nunn will help us to draw / paint flowers. Some materials provided. (Time 10.30 – 12 noon)

Monday 14th August – 'Memoirs of a Royal Footman'

Ian Scott-Hunter will be giving us an insight into life as a Royal Footman. Q&A and cake follows! (Time 3 – 5pm)

Wednesday 16th August – 'Morning café'

An informal café for all ages at St Andrew's. Pop in anytime! (Time 10 - 12 noon)

Friday 18th August - 'Food for Thought'

An afternoon tea with a quiz prepared by Elizabeth Gittins. Get your thinking caps on! (Time 3 – 5pm)